Pew Sheet notices

If you have a notice to include in this weekly Pew Sheet please email details to Christine Stevens (details above) before 5pm on a Wednesday.

St Luke's on WhatsApp

There is a WhatsApp "Community" for St Luke's. If you use WhatsApp, use the QR code (right) to add yourself.

You'll find several channels available from announcements, general chat to prayer requests, information for parents, and more.

If you run a group and need a channel for your activity or organisers, please speak to Rev David to get set-up.

St Luke's Christmas Fair Saturday 29th Nov. 12.30-3pm

There is a sign-up table at the back of the church for anyone who'd like to help. We need help on the day running stalls, setting up the night before, or giving a little time to sell raffle tickets (which will also be on sale at the back of Church).

You can join in the festive fun by: Volunteering your time/ donating goodies for the stalls/ selling raffle tickets to friends and family/ spreading the word- putting up a poster or sharing on social media.

Please remember this week in your daily prayers

- ❖ The following people in our church community and their family:
Cathy Morris, Louise Morris & Daniel Mwongela
- ❖ The residents of All Saints Rd, Birkdale and Bramble Walk
- ❖ Those who are unwell, undergoing treatment, or housebound including Paul Cookson, the Riseborough family, and Kirsty Waugh.
- ❖ All those who are grieving for those who have died especially everyone attending our Annual Memorial Service today.
- ❖ For those in our congregation who work in financial services. For good stewardship, flourishing in our economy, and their witness
- ❖ For HM the King and our nation, for loving and respectful discourse, truth and integrity in leadership.
- ❖ For the people of Jamaica and all people affected by the Hurricane.
- ❖ For the people of Israel and Palestine and for a lasting and just peace. For peace in Ukraine and the defence of their nation.

First reading:

Ephesians 1. 11-23

¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

¹⁵I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason ¹⁶I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. ¹⁷I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, ¹⁸so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. ²God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. ²²And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, ²³which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Second reading

Luke 19: 1-10

[Jesus] entered Jericho and was passing through it. ²A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax-collector and was rich. ³He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. ⁴So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. ⁵When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.' ⁶So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. ⁷All who saw it began to grumble and said, 'He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.' ⁸Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.' ⁹Then Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.'

Join our choir for Christmas

We would love to offer the chance for more people to join the choir as a one-off for the wonderful Carol service on December 21st.

It's great fun and a lovely way to get to know each other better too. Rehearsals are Thursdays at 7.30 p.m. for an hour (in church). November 13th, 27th. December 4th, 11th, 18th.

2025 Stewardship Campaign

The Parish Giving Scheme website is currently down for maintenance and upgrading its security features. We'll let you know when it's available again.

In the meantime, if you've not yet considered your Stewardship Response, please do so. Leaflets available at the back of church.
